RAMONA CITY DIRECTORY

1933

IN THE GOLDEN VALLEY OF LITTLE RANCHES

The town of Ramona lies in the central eastern part of San Diego county, at an elevation of 1440 feet, in the Santa Maria valley and has a population of 450 (1930 U. S. Census). This farming section extends a distance of about nine miles from northeast to southwest, with an average width of about three miles and a slope toward the west of about fifteen feet to the mile. Poultry breeding is the leading industry, with hay and grain, citrus fruits and avocados next in importance. Ramona is surrounded by rugged mountains, except on the extreme eastern side where a chain of very low rolling hills separate it from Goose Valley, which topographically, forms the northeastern part of the Santa Maria valley. The valley floor is composed of friable gravelly and sandy loams, which in spots are deep, but lacking in humus. Outcroppings of granite occur, breaking the level hay and grain areas on the valley floor.

In addition to hotels, restaurants, weekly newspaper, union grammar and high school building, the latter being of concrete construction, Ramona possesses general merchandise, grocery, hardware stores, a bank, and lumber yard. The town has two garages, machine shop and vulcanizing plant. A town hall and Masonic Temple for fraternal and social gatherings, and Friends and Congregational churches are prominent. The American Legion Post and Woman's Auxiliary take an active part in civic affairs. Motor trucks handle the freight from this district. Auto passenger service, with round trips daily between Julian and San Diego passing through Ramona, furnishes transportation. There are fine paved roads to San Diego, and to nearby mountain resorts, for which the surrounding territory is famous, this locality having one of California's best year-round climates. Mild summers and winters make Ramona and surrounding neighborhood ideal locations for health resorts and hospitals.

For further information, address the Ramona Chamber of Commerce.
